*GATHERING OF OUR HEARTS:

Leader: It is in this place of holiness that we can come with our fears, our doubts, all the questions of our hearts.

All: We come to this place to hear the words of peace, of hope, of joy God speaks to us.

Leader: It is in this place of discovery that we can come searching.

All: We come to this place, to find the One who has been looking for us.

Leader: It is in this place of openness that we can come knocking.

All: We come to this place, to be embraced by the One whose heart is never locked.

*PRAYER OF THE DAY

Rev. Alice Odell

*HYMN # 401:

Here In This Place

CALL TO CONFESSION:

Rev. Dr. Barry Shatzer

PRAYER OF CONFESSION:

Merciful God, forgive us for we have sinned. Help us to see ourselves for who we are and who we are not. We whine about those who are not doing what we think they should, but ignore our own failings. We hurt those around us with the callous things we have said and with our selfish behavior. Forgive us, O God, sit us down at Jesus' feet so we may learn the life you intend for us. Set our hearts right so that we may stop hurting others and bring healing where healing is needed. Teach us to reach out to our sisters and brothers and welcome them just as you have welcomed us into your heart, O Jesus, our Lord and Savior. (time for silent confession) Amen

ASSURANCE OF PARDON:

Christ Jesus comes to reconcile us to God, so we can be reconciled to one another. Recreated in God's image, we are made whole. When we are in Christ, everything becomes new. Praise God! We will go forth and live as reconciled people. Amen

*GLORIA PATRI:

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

MESSAGE: "A Brief Statement of Faith, A Teaching Moment"

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH: A Brief Statement of Faith

In life and in death we belong to God. Through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, we trust in the one triune God, the Holy One of Israel, whom alone we worship and serve. We trust in Jesus Christ, Fully human, fully God. Jesus proclaimed the reign of God: preaching good news to the poor and release to the captives, teaching by word and deed and blessing the children, healing the sick and binding up the brokenhearted, eating with outcasts, forgiving sinners, and calling all to repent and believe the gospel. Unjustly condemned for blasphemy and sedition, Jesus was crucified, suffering the depths of human pain and giving his life for the sins of the world. God raised this Jesus from the dead, vindicating his sinless life, breaking the power of sin and evil, delivering us from death to life eternal. We trust in God, whom Jesus called Abba, Father. In sovereign love God created the world good and makes everyone equally in God's image male and female, of every race and people, to live as one community. But we rebel against God; we hide from our Creator. Ignoring God's commandments, we violate the image of God in others and ourselves, accept lies as truth, exploit neighbor and nature, and threaten death to the planet entrusted to our care. We deserve God's condemnation. Yet God acts with justice and mercy to redeem creation. In everlasting love, the God of Abraham and Sarah chose a covenant people to bless all families of the earth. Hearing their cry, God delivered the children of Israel from the house of bondage. Loving us still, God makes us heirs with Christ of the covenant. Like a mother who will not forsake her nursing child, like a father who runs to welcome the prodigal home, God is faithful still. We trust in God the Holy Spirit, everywhere the giver and renewer of life. The Spirit justifies us by grace through faith, sets us free to accept ourselves and to love God and neighbor, and binds us together with all believers in the one body of Christ, the Church. The same Spirit who inspired the prophets and apostles rules our faith and life in Christ through Scripture, engages us through the Word proclaimed, claims us in the waters of baptism, feeds us with the bread of life and the cup of salvation, and calls women and men to all ministries of the church. In a broken and fearful world the Spirit gives us courage to pray without ceasing, to witness among all peoples to Christ as Lord and Savior, to unmask idolatries in Church and culture, to hear the voices of peoples long silenced, and to work with others for justice, freedom, and peace. In gratitude to God, empowered by the Spirit, we strive to serve Christ in our daily tasks and to live holy and joyful lives, even as we watch for God's new heaven and new earth, praying, "Come, Lord Jesus!" With believers in every time and place, we rejoice that nothing in life or in death can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Rev. Dr. Barry Shatzer

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

The offertory reflects the depth of God's love for us, as it brings together two hymns, Amazing Grace and Alas, and Did My Savior Bleed.

SOPC Small Groups: This Fall and Spring, SOPC is hosting a number and variety of small groups to facilitate meeting new faces and growing in faith. Session has been reading 'The Trelis and the Vine' by Tony Payne who describes small groups in a church as 'a shift from running programs to building people'. In small groups, leaders spring up from within the church and share their natural talents with the congregation. These folks form new relationships (even in old friends), new interests, and new faith perspectives. Not to mention that small groups are a non-threatening means of inviting friends who may be weary of church or faith into a community of support where grace can be seen. Isn't that part of our call, to love God and love our neighbor as we studied last week? In the coming weeks, we will highlight some of the small groups coming to your SOPC family. You are invited to find a new group to explore and invite a friend to go with you! Where two or more are gathered....

Session Shepherds: One of the strengths of Seven Oaks Presbyterian Church is our natural ability to care for one another. According to the vitalization survey, 85% of members feel that "my church loves and cares for all its members". We are encouraging this care by forming shepherd groups within the congregation. If you haven't already received a phone call, email, or card from your session shepherd, look for one very soon. This will be your immediate contact when you want to chat, need a ride, desire home communion, or simply want to grab a meal with some other folks. Of course, your pastors are always here as well. Your shepherd may ask if you'd like to have an impromptu dinner with the group or perhaps just give you a ring from time to time to discuss how church life is going. In return, you are invited to call your shepherd and support them. After all, being an elder and being a shepherd of others is hard work. If you do not yet know who your shepherd is and desire to make contact, please call the office and we can connect you! Let's practice feeding God's sheep together!
