CALL TO WORSHIP

One: The prophet asks: Can our soul-weary bones live again?

All: O God, you know!

One: We ask: Can we dance again after mourning, loss, and grief?

All: O God, you know!

One: The gift is sure and unmistakable:

All: God's breath poured out as new life for weary souls!

One: Let us celebrate the gift of God's new life,

All: And come to worship God in laughter and dancing!

PRAYER

Holy and Gracious God, we come to you from far reaches of the world, untied by technology and united by prayer. We come to you in Spirit and in truth for that is what calls us to you this morning. Hear our worship from the solitude of our homes and in our lives that you will nourish our souls. It's in Your name we pray, Amen.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

Gospel Readings

John 11:1-16

Elder Tish Lowe

<sup>28</sup> When she had said this, she went back and called her sister Mary, and told her privately, "The Teacher is here and is calling for you." <sup>29</sup> And when she heard it, she got up quickly and went to him. <sup>30</sup> Now Jesus had not yet come to the village, but was still at the place where Martha had met him. <sup>31</sup> The Jews who were with her in the house, consoling her, saw Mary get up quickly and go out. They followed her because they thought that she was going to the tomb to weep there. <sup>32</sup> When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." <sup>33</sup> When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. <sup>34</sup> He said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see." <sup>35</sup> Jesus began to weep. <sup>36</sup> So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!" <sup>37</sup> But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?"

Elder Fred Holbrook

John 11:38-45

Pastor Jana Creighton

<sup>38</sup> Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. <sup>39</sup> Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days." <sup>40</sup> Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?" <sup>41</sup> So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, "Father, I thank you for having heard me. <sup>42</sup> I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me." <sup>43</sup> When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" <sup>44</sup> The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go." <sup>45</sup> Many of the Jews therefore, who had come with Mary and had seen what Jesus did, believed in him.

Breathe on Me, Breath of God

Hymn 286

<sup>1</sup>Breathe on me, Breath of God; fill me with life anew,

<sup>2</sup>Breathe on me, Breath of God, until my heart is pure,
 Until with thee I will one will, to do and to endure.

<sup>3</sup>Breathe on me, Breath of God, till I am wholly thine,
 Until this earthly part of me glows with thy fire divine.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

<sup>1</sup>What a fellowship, what a joy divine, leaning on the everlasting arms;
What a blessedness, what a peace is mine, leaning on the everlasting arms.

Refrain Leaning, leaning, safe and secure from all alarms.
Leaning, leaning, leaning on the everlasting arms.

<sup>2</sup>O how sweet to walk in this pilgrim way, leaning on the everlasting arms;
O how bright the path grows from day to day, leaning on the everlasting arms.
*Refrain

<sup>3</sup>What have I to dread, what have I to fear, leaning on the everlasting arms?
I have blessed peace with my Lord so near, leaning on the everlasting arms.
*Refrain

The flowers this morning were given to the glory of God by Carol Griffith and in Thanksgiving for the many happy memories and wonderful friends here at Seven Oaks.
